

DHR Interpreters and Other Language Services

DHR Interpreters

DHR is continually recruiting interpreters to assist with language access needs statewide. Individuals interested in interpreting for DHR are encouraged to complete the interpreter application on www.dhrjobs.com and forward the completed application with resume to the LEP/SI Client Services program at the address noted on this website. The names and contact information of interpreters is distributed to DHR divisions and offices throughout the state on a regular basis.

Telephone/Internet Interpreter Services

- Certified Language International – 1.800.237-8434
- Language Line Services– 1.800.752-0093
- Online Interpreters – 1.800.307-1001
- TeleLanguage Services – 1.800.514-9237
- The Translation Center, University of Massachusetts (Medical Interpreting Online) Contact: www.umass.edu/contined/

Interpreters for the Deaf

Georgia Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, Inc. – www.garid.org

Georgia Telecommunications Relay Service – “711” or 1.800.229.5746

GREAT DAY Inc./GREAT DAY Foundation – 404.378-8553 (Voice/TTY) or 1.888.860.5403 (fax)

IP-Relay – provides voice calls at a computer (Video Relay Service).

Multicultural Directory

Many non-profit agencies throughout Georgia provide interpreter services. Georgia State University’s Center for Applied Research in Anthropology has published a multicultural directory, which lists ethnic organizations that may provide interpreter services. The directory can be accessed through the Internet at Globalizing Georgia: Atlanta Ethnicity Atlas and Multicultural Directory of Georgia 2003-2004 or by faxing a request to 404/651-3302.